see, he wasn't surprised. He's known me for thirty–five years. And, well (with simple pride) anybody who's known me for thirty-five years doesn't expect me to haggle with my conscience. If it had been anybody else than Gresham, I would have struck him across the face. But John Gresham and I were boys together. We worked side by side. And I've been in his employ ever since he started in for himself. He is desperate–he doesn't know what he is doing–or he wouldn't have offered me money.

Let's understand better:

Baldwin is pressurized by Gresham to falsely declare that he does not remember the facts, but Baldwin refuses to do so.

JOHN: (furious) Offered you money, Dad?

BALDWIN: He'd put it aside, ready for the emergency. If they don't convict him, he'll hand it over to me. The law can't stop him. But if I live until tomorrow night, they will convict him! (He sighs) God knows I want no share in bringing about his punishment. (He breaks off; Evie pats his hand silently.) Young man and old man, I've worked with him or for him the best part of my life. I'm loyal to him– I've always been loyal to him–but when John Gresham ceases to be an honest man, John Gresham and I part company!

MARTHA: (weeping softly) Robert! Robert!

BALDWIN: I've got only a few years to live, but I'll live those as I've lived the rest of my life. I'll go to my grave clean!

JOHN: Dad…What did Gresham offer you?

BALDWIN: (simply) A hundred thousand dollars.

EVIE: What!

Let's understand better:

In order to tempt Baldwin, Gresham offers him a huge bribe of hundred thousand dollars, but Baldwin doesn't accept it.

MARTHA: Robert!

BALDWIN: He put it aside for me without anybody knowing it. It's out of his private fortune, he says. It's not the depositors' money–as if that made any difference.

EVIE: (as if hypnotized) He offered you a hundred thousand dollars?

BALDWIN: (smiling at her amazement) I could have had it for the one word 'Yes' – or even for nodding my head–or a look of the eyes.

JOHN: How-how do you know he meant it?

BALDWIN: His word is good.

JOHN: Even now?

BALDWIN: He never lied to me, John. (He pauses.) I suppose my eyes must have
