Tell him time as a stuff can be wasted.
Tell him to be a fool ever so often and to have no shame over having been a fool yet learning something out of every folly hoping to repeat none of the cheap follies thus arriving at intimate understanding of a world numbering many fools.

Tell him to be alone often and get at himself and above all tell himself no lies about himself whatever the white lies and protective fronts

he may use against other people.
Tell him solitude is creative if he is strong and the final decisions are made in silent rooms.
Tell him to be different from other people if it comes natural and easy being different.

Let him have lazy days seeking his deeper motives.
Let him seek deep for where he is born natural.
Then he may understand Shakespeare and the Wright brothers, Pasteur, Pavlov, Michael Faraday and free imaginations

Bringing changes into a world resenting change.
He will be lonely enough to have time for the work he knows as his own.
