2) Based on your understanding of the poem answer the following questions in one or two sentences.

a) How would the poet's advice help his son who is at the threshold of the manhood?

b) 'A tough will counts.' Explain.

c) What happened to the people who wanted too much money?

d) What has twisted good men into thwarted worms?

e) How would his being alone help the boy?

f) Where are the final decisions taken?

g) What are the poet's thoughts on 'being different'?

h) Why does the poet advise his son to have lazy days?

i) The poet says

'Without rich wanting nothing arrives'

but he condemns 'the quest of lucre beyond a few easy needs.' Analyse the difference and write.

3. Here are a few poetic devices used in the poem.

a. Antithesis- It is a literary device that emphasises the idea of contrast.

e.g. The growth of a frail flower in a path up has sometimes shattered and split a rock. Brutes have been gentled where lashes failed.

b.Transferred Epithet- It is a figure of speech in which an epithet grammatically qualifies a noun other than the person or a thing, it is actually meant to describe.

e.g. and left them dead years before burial:

Let him have lazy days seeking his deeper motives.

Bringing changes into a world resenting change.
