Spell Test

Task 1

Encircle the word that has been spelt correctly, in each pair below:

1. beleive - believe
2. separate - seperate
3. assistant - asisstant
4. hippocrites - hypocrites
5. secretary - secretery
6. buoyantly - bouyantly
7. necessary - neccesary
8. evolution - evolusion
9. athletics - atheletics
10. warehouse -wearhouse
11. contemtuously - contemptuously
12. indispensible - indispensable
13. tommorrow - tomorrow
14. foriegn - foreign
15. dysentery - dysentry
16. lieing - lying
17. concience - conscience
18. competent -competant
19. pleasant - plaesant
20. chocolate–choclate
21. awfully -awefully
22. amatuer - amateur

Task 2

Edit the following passages by correcting the spelling mistakes:

Passage – 1

Some parents are notoriuos in maintaining a somber environment at home, especialy during the period when their children have examinations. They should understand that breifdivertions from the main task can dramatically improve their attention span. Entertainment is, without any doubt, indispensible for children. However, parents should educate their children to use modaration in their entertainments, and above all, not to seak enjoyment at the expence of their health and success.

Passage – 2

Tolerence refers to an attitude of openess and respect for the differences that exist among people. It was originally used to refer to ethenic and religeous differences and the concepts of diversity. But in the present times, forbaerance can also be applied to gender, people with physical and intellectual disebilities, and other differences, too. Tolerence means respecting others, valueing differences, bridgeing cultural gaps, rejecting unfair steriotypes, discovering common ground, and creating new bonds.

12th General_English_Unit_6_E_Grammer.indd 224 22-02-2020 15:11:24