(v) Any income or expense relating to specific fund must not be taken to income and expenditure account.

(vi) Non-cash items such as bad debts, depreciation, loss or gain on sale of assets, etc., which are not recorded in receipts and payments account must be recorded in income and expenditure account.

(vii) The balancing figure of income and expenditure account is either surplus or deficit and will be transferred to capital fund in the balance sheet. If the total of credit side of income and expenditure account is more than the total of debit side (excess of income over expenditure), the difference represents surplus. If the total of debit side of income and expenditure account is more than the total of credit side (excess of expenditure over income), the difference represents deficit.
