of the Earth" award."I am an ocean lover and feel that we owe a duty to our ocean to make it free of plastic," he told the UN, "I just hope this is the beginning for coastal communities across India and the world."

8. Shah's work didn't end with the last piece of trash picked up. He wanted to plant thousands of coconut trees and to return the beach to the lagoon as it once was. He continued to work to limit the garbage by building barriers along the creek's upstream that carried litter to the beach.

9. Shah also hopes to bring grassroots clean-up efforts to other parts of India inspiring a nationwide awareness of environmentalism. Ultimately, Shah wants to export this mentality throughout the world, cleaning up oceans, and ecosystems to create a world that can foster life in all its splendour. Thus Afroj Shah and Minu Pauline proved to the world that individuals with great vision and mission can change the surroundings and make the world a better place to live in.
