b. Process of voting

Very soon you will all be eligible to vote in elections. Check your awareness.

The Election Commission of India is in-charge of everything concerning the process of election. It conducts the elections and has devised certain norms that are listed below.

- You must first register on the Electoral Roll which is a list of eligible voters. You can even apply online at designated locations or through a booth level officer.
- You will be issued a Voter ID which you need to present at the polling booth.
- You are responsible to find out where the polling booth is in your respective constituency.
- You must familiarize yourself with all the names, parties and the symbols of all the candidates contesting in your locality.
- You can vote on the Electronic Voting Machines available in the polling booth.
- You just have to press the button next to your desired candidate's name and symbol. You can also vote NOTA if you are not very keen in choosing any of the candidates contesting. NOTA means 'none of the above'.
- You will receive a mark of indelible ink on your index finger that signifies that you have voted.
- You must take pride in casting your vote as every vote counts. A multitude of people voting will surely make a difference. The responsibility lies on every individual.

Remember VOTING IS YOUR RIGHT AND RESPONSIBILITY.

Here is a discussion on the Voting system and the need to exercise one's vote. In a group of three, role play the following.

First time voter (18 yrs old) – excited – eager to vote – sense of identity – franchise – feels proud about it – learns about the electoral system – procedures

Experienced Voter- Experienced voter – committed – exercise the rights – duty bound considers it his right – never missed the chance

NOTA(VOTER) – Not happy with the election system – doesn't want his rights to be misused – wants to show his emphatic stand
